

Info for candidates

PREPARING FOR WORK IN THE CREATIVE MEDIA INDUSTRIES

This free training programme is for the recently unemployed in West London. You will create a website portfolio, gain an OCR qualification certificate and find out about opportunities for work in web design, film & video production, music and the arts.

The programme is suitable for people with an interest or past work history in ... web design, graphic design, digital marketing, music production and/or promotion, film and video production and/or marketing, editorial and Journalism, photography, the arts (theatre, dance, comedy, art, cinema, music etc), event management etc.

Programme content

There are 2 course options ...

- Option 1 - Fast track 4-8 weeks.
- Option 2 - Intensive support 13 weeks

Depending on the option you choose, you will receive ...

- Individual tailored One2One career advice mentoring from industry professionals
- Training in creating your own individual online CV portfolio website with an industry professional
- Travel costs to training sessions paid
- Free CV portfolio website hosting
- An accredited OCR qualification

- Access to Apple workstations with professional software
- Free office supplies and postage

Am I eligible?

You must be ...

- Aged over 18
- UK passport or proof of residency of at least 12 months
- Must have left work (redundancy or dismissal) within the last 6 months
- Must have been registered employment at some time in the last six months
- Must have been signing on for less than 6 months
- Living in West London (see our website for JobCentres areas)

Want to know more and apply?

- Go to www.imthurricane.org/courses/prepareworkmedia
- Call us on 020 8691 1900 Mon-Fri 11am-5.30pm
- Show this flyer to your JobCentre advisor and tell them the opportunity number is HJN 51072

IMT HURRICANE

www.imthurricane.org/courses/prepareworkmedia